SATURDAY, JULY 13, 1745.

Nuremberg, July 5.

A Report has prevailed here for ſome Days, that a new Treaty was concluded and ſign'd at Munich, on the 2d, between the Elector of Bavaria and her Hungarian Majeſty; and there are ſome People here, who cannot bear with Patience to have the Truth of this Report queſtion'd, though moſt certainly, in its Nature, not over-likely to be a Matter of Fact. Count Mansfield, who paſs'd thro' this City this Morning from Munich, was ſo far from having heard of any ſuch Treaty, that he thought Things were pretty far advanc'd, ſince Conferences were held there with the Count de Choteck, the Queen of Hungary's Plenipotentiary, as to the Number of Forces his Electoral Highneſs may be able to furniſh, in caſe the States of the Empire ſhall agree to aſſemble an Army of Obſervation; a Propoſition lately revived, and proſecuted with greater Heat then ever. The Pruſſian and French Miniſters remain both of them at Munich, tho' they ſeem to have nothing to do there; many People attribute their Conduct to a Deſire of vexing the Auſtrian Miniſter, who has over and over expreſſed his Uneaſineſs at ſeeing them there; but the Elector can by no means be brought to acquaint thoſe Miniſters that he ſhould be glad to ſee them leave his Court: On the contrary, he treats Count Klingraff with the utmoſt Reſpect, and M. Chavigny with the utmoſt Civility, tho' it is well enough known that he is not a perſonal Favourite with his Electoral Highneſs.

Ratisbon, July 9. All our Advices from Munich vary ſo much, that there is nothing to be gathered from them with Certainty. One Letter aſſures us, that the Elector of Bavaria is on the Point of marching 12,000 Men to join the Army of the Allies on the Rhine; another aſſures us, that he is ſpeedily to march thoſe Troops, but that they are to reinforce the Army of Prince Charles; a Third, that they are to join the Army of the aſſociated States of the Empire; but when, or where they are to aſſemble, no body can tell. It is, in the mean time, a Matter of Fact; that from being extremely poor and needy, the Court of Bavaria is ſuddenly become full of Money. Two great Remittances have been made there within theſe Six Weeks, amounting to at leaſt 10,000 Florins each; and we are well aſſured that M. de Chavigny has received Bills on the Bankers of Augsbourg and this City, for a Million and Half of Livres, if not more. At this rate, one would think the Elector's Intereſt was to be ſet up at Auction, and that theſe Remittances were to enable the Miniſters to bid briskly upon each other. As for the Treaty that was ſaid to be ſign'd between the Queen of Hungary and the Elector, it was occaſioned by the ſigning a Kind of Convention in relation to the Gariſons in the ſtrong Places of Bavaria; which the Queen, having Occaſion for her Troops, is content to put into the Elector's Hands, upon Aſſurances given, that he will not enter into any new Schemes with the French. There is, however, a Rumour of a new Family Treaty between Three of the Electors, which differs little from reviving the Treaty of Union at Franckfort; but whether this be really a French Project, or only the Echo of one ſent abroad to fright ſuch as ſhall credit it, is what Time will manifeſt; and about which, at preſent, we want Lights ſufficient to determine.

Extract of a private Letter from the Hague, July 17.

'There are ſome Letters from the Auſtrian Netherlands, which report Things very different from what 'has hitherto been publiſhed. They ſay, for Inſtance, 'that the Detachment which was ſent from Aloſt to 'Ghent, conſiſted of 5000 Men; that the French who 'attacked them were at leaſt 20, if not 25,000; and 'that the Loſs ſuſtained in that Action, including the 'killed, wounded, and diſpers'd, amounts to near 2000 'Men. We apprehend, however, that theſe Advices are 'owing to ſome Miſtakes; for Inſtance, they could not 'know at Bruſſels that better than 400 Men, Hanoverian 'Dragoons and Huſſars, had taken Shelter in Oſtend, after 'their fighting their Way thro' the French, who fired 'at them out of Windows, and from the Tops of the 'Houſes. If theſe 400 be deducted from their Account, 'it will agree pretty well with what has been publiſhed. 'They write from Mons, of the 9th Inſtant, that the 'Avenues to that City are pretty clear; and that the 'Corps of French Troops which was in their Neigh'bourhood, conſiſting of about 15,000 Men, are 'marched to join the Prince of Conti. The Army of 'the Allies is encamped between Bruſſels and Malines, 'having the River Sonne on one Side, and the Canal of 'Bruſſels on the other. The French Parties are very 'numerous on the other Side the Dyle, and have exacted 'Contributions from ſeveral of the Villages that are 'under the Juriſdiction of the City of Louvain. The 'Baron de Reiſchach, who conferred Yeſterday with 'the Preſident of the Week, aſſured him, that the next 'Expreſs from the Rhine would bring the News, either 'of the Prince of Conti's repaſſing the Rhine, or of 'a deciſive Battle, which makes us exceſſively uneaſy.'

HOME PORTS.

LONDON.

Private Letters from Leghorn ſay, that the Engliſh Ships of War on that Coaſt have actually ſent into that Port upwards of 80 Prizes, Part of the Spaniſh and Neapolitan Fleet of Tranſports deſign'd for Genoa, beſides others they have forc'd on Shore.

By the laſt Accounts received from Dreſden, they ſeem to be in a good meaſure out of any Apprehenſion of a Viſit from the Pruſſians; the Inſurgents having puſhed ſo far into Sileſia, that his Pruſſian Majeſty will be obliged to weaken the Corps at Magdebourgh to repreſs them.

We are informed by Letters from Flanders, that ſome Doubts have ariſen about the Validity of the Capitulation for the Citadel of Tournay, on Account of Baron Dort's being refuſed Entrance into it, as was ſtipulated by the Capitulation for the Town, and that the Dutch will diſclaim it.

The Virginia and Weſt-India Fleets were under Sail from Plymouth the 9th Inſt. under Convoy of the Squadron commanded by Vice-Admiral Townſhend, with the Wind at North.

The Diſpatch, Frazier, from North Carolina for London, was taken by a French Privateer in her Paſſage; and retaken by the Neapolitan, Capt. Hurſt, and carried into the Elbe.

Yeſterday Morning, about Six o'Clock, his Excellency Prince Cherbatow, Ambaſſador from the Court of Ruſſia, ſet out, with his Lady, from his Houſe in St. James's Street, for Harwich, in order to embark for Holland, in his Way to Hanover.

Yeſterday the Hon. John Stanhope, Eſq; Brother to the Right Hon. the Earl of Cheſterfield, lay dangerouſly Ill at his Lodgings at Blackheath.

Laſt Thurſday Thomas Smith, Eſq; one of the Chief Clerks of the Exchequer, was married to Miſs Briſtow, Daughter of Mrs. Briſtow of Charles-ſtreet; an agreeable young Lady.

Yeſterday Orders were iſſued, that the Foot Guards remaining here ſhould do Duty by Turns for 48 Hours, which uſually was but 24.

The Books of his Majeſty's Ships the Cumberland and Barfleur, are ſent from the Pay Office for Chatham, to pay them off.

Yeſterday died Mrs. Pepys, a wealthy Sadler, at the Cock in Biſhopſgate-ſtreet.

The Proprietors of the Original Raiſin-Brandy Warehouſe, are remov'd from next Door to the Golden Key, to the Sign of the Golden Anchor on the oppoſite Side of the Way, near St. Paul's Church-Yard, in Watling Street. They are determined to keep up their Brandy to its uſual Goodneſs, which has withſtood for theſe Ten Years paſt the various Contrivances in Oppoſition to it, both under the ſame, and other Names; and they will accommodate thoſe Perſons that it don't ſuit to take Five Gallons, with Two Gallons and a Half, except they ſhould require it to be ſent to any of the Out-Parts of the Town.

MR. GREENOUGH's Tinctures for preſerving the Teeth white and beautiful, deſtroying the Scurvy in the Gums, and curing the Tooth-Ach.

The Tincture for preſerving the Teeth, in a few Times uſing, perfectly cures the Scurvy in the Gums, cauſes them to grow down cloſe and regular, makes the fouleſt Teeth white and beautiful, faſtens them when looſe, preſerves them from growing rotten, and keeps ſuch as are already decayed, from becoming worſe; and in a little Time removes the Cauſe of an ill-ſcented Breath, except where the Lungs are ulcerated. Each Bottle of this Tincture is ſeal'd in red Wax, with theſe Words, For preſerving the Teeth, and round them, By the King's Patent. Price One Shilling.

The Tincture for curing the Tooth-Ach, gives Eaſe in a few Minutes, even when it is moſt violent, and in a little Time perfectly cures it. Each Bottle of this Tincture is ſeal'd with black Wax, with theſe Words, For curing the Tooth-Ach, and round them, By the King's Patent. Price One Shilling.

Note, By Virtue of the Patent above mentioned, I have appointed John Newbery my only Vender of theſe Tinctures, to whom all Perſons are deſired to apply for them, at his Warehouſe, the Bible and Crown, near Devereux Court, without Temple-Bar, London, and at his Shop in Reading, Berks; at which Places, Merchants, Captains of Ships, and Country-Dealers, will have good Allowance to ſell again; and particular Bills, in any Language, will be printed for ſuch as take Quantities to Foreign Parts.

Sold alſo at my Houſe, over-againſt the Green Dragon on Snow-Hill, near St. Sepulcher's Church.

SCHWANBERG's LIQUID-SHELL,
TO BE DEPENDED UPON IN THE GRAVEL and STONE.

THE Rev. Dr. HALES, and others, have demonſtrated by various Experiments, That the Virtues of Mrs. Stevens's Medicine for the GRAVEL and STONE, depend upon the SALTS of Lime in the Alicant Soap, and calcin'd Shells; but its enormous Doſe renders it ſo nauſeous, that it is almoſt impoſſible to take it in a manner ſufficient to anſwer any good End. This, then, will inform ſuch unhappy Perſons who are afflicted with the GRAVEL and STONE, That M. SCHWANBERG, a learned and ingenious Gentleman, well verſed in the moſt abſtruſe Operations of Chymiſtry, had a Method of Liquifying calcin'd Shells, ſo as to become ſimpled as Rock-water, yet not corroſive. They give almoſt immediate Relief in the moſt violent Pains of the GRAVEL; and, if duly perſiſted in, will, in time, bid fair for diſſolving a STONE in the Urinary Paſſages, when too large to paſs off otherwiſe. They may be depended on in the Wind-Colic, and all Kinds of Flatulences; and, where an Alcali is wanting, will anſwer the deſired End. A Child may take them in the Month, for Gripings, Fevers, and Uneaſineſſes, which Children are ſubject to, from Acidities, the known Cauſe of moſt of their Diſorders.

 It is remarkable, That thoſe who take them for the STONE, have a Sediment in their Urine reſembling powdered Chalk: Now, that this Sediment is a Portion of the Stone diſſolv'd, is evident from an Experiment in the Power of every one to make; for, put an human STONE, form'd in the Urinary Paſſages, into a Vial of the LIQUID-SHELL, and it will gradually diſſolve into a White Powder, exactly reſembling that in the Urine of Perſons who take it as a Medicine for the STONE, and this in an Heat not greater than that of the Body, yet, at the ſame time, not in the leaſt affect an human Hair put therein; and, which ſurpriſingly will, upon the Affuſion of an Acid, be inſtantly converted into a Snow-white Powder.

To be had of the Proprietor W. Baker, at his Houſe in Helmet-Court, near Katherine-ſtreet in the Strand; and, by his Appointment, of R. Lee, Stationer, under the Statuary's, facing Serjeants-Inn in Fleet ſtreet; and of John Newbery, at the Golden Ball in Caſtle Alley, near the Royal Exchange, London; or, at his Printing-Office in Reading, at 1s. 6d. the ſmall Vial.

☞ The Doſe is from 10 Drops to 30; and not unpleaſant.

The only true Specifick Tincture
For the TOOTH-ACH, and all Diſorders and Defects of the TEETH and GUMS whatever, which has given ſuch intire Satisfaction to the Nobility and Gentry for above three Twenty Years paſt, by its vaſtly excelling all other Things, either formerly invented or lately contrived for theſe Purpoſes;

SINCE one Drop of it gives infallible and inſtant Eaſe in the moſt tormenting Pain, when nothing elſe will, and not only takes it away in a Moment, but abſolutely cures the TOOTH-ACH, ſo as certainly to prevent its Return.

At only once uſing it makes the fouleſt Teeth moſt beautifully white, aſſuredly faſtens thoſe that are looſe, and infallibly preſerves the Teeth from growing rotten, and thoſe a little decay'd, from becoming worſe: It perfectly cures the Scurvy in the Gums, cauſing them to grow up to the Teeth again to Admiration, and alſo occaſions a Sweet Breath.

It is neither diſagreeable to the Smell or Taſte, but effectually preſerves the Teeth and Gums from all Manner of Foulneſs, Corruption, and Putrefaction, keeps them ſound, good, and in moſt beautiful Order, and may be depended upon to anſwer the Character here given of it, literally, and in every Reſpect, as Perſons innumerable have experienc'd.

But theſe inimitable Qualities, and ſolely inherent Virtues, by which it has juſtly gain'd ſuch an univerſal and unparallel'd great character, have occaſion'd, as uſual in ſuch caſes, various and frequent Endeavours to mimick it, ſome under the ſame Name, and in the very Words of this Advertiſement, and others under other Names; be careful, therefore, to have the right, which may be infallibly relied upon, and which is to be had only, by the Author's Appointment, of the Gentlewoman, at the Two Blue-Poſts, in Haydon-Yard, in the Minories, London, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions.

Good Allowance to thoſe who take Quantities for Exportation.
